Terms and conditions

Day tickets/permits are available on the banks at Bowland Lakes Leisure Village for general coarse fishing. Payment can be made at reception (in the office lodge), or if no one is available you may set-up and we will collect payment and issue a ticket on the bank. Please keep your ticket with you along with a form of photographic identification and an appropriate EA rod licence.

We accept both card and cash payments.

It is a condition of purchase that you accept and agree to spot checks of your Permit(s) EA licence, identification, tackle, equipment, bags and catch at any time; at any time, if a member of the Bowland Lakes Leisure Village staff believes you to be breaching any of these rules, contravening their permit terms, or behaving in a disruptive manner, then it is our right to ask you to return any fish in your possession, and to leave the site immediately and without compensation.

Bowland Lakes Leisure Village reserve the right to exclude anglers at any time from the whole, or any specific part of Bowland Lakes Leisure Village.

Anglers park their car at their own risk and are requested to park sensibly, please refer to the fishing rules for driving/parking rules.

Please ensure that you help us to prevent the spread of disease to our fish. All footwear and fishing equipment must have been thoroughly cleaned and dried before entering our site. Once you have arrived, please use the dips to disinfect your equipment before you start fishing and before leaving site.

Anglers must respect, follow and observe the country code. This means no litter to be left, no dogs running loose on site, no loud music, and no fires. Barbeques are allowed but must be kept off the ground and used in the designated area. These must be cooled and watered down before disposing.

The park manager telephone number is 07584707342.

In the event of a serious emergency please telephone 999 and notify a member of staff when you are able to.

The postcode of Bowland Lakes Leisure Village is PR3 1BY.
